

ANNOUNCEMENT

A sweet beautiful lady Phyllis Francis, passed away in the early hours of July 21, 2019 at Hospice in Orlando Florida.

Phyllis and her husband Mel who passed away on July 4th of 2013 were one of the first residents in Falling Waters in 1992.

Falling Waters-I was the first building built at the time in which they purchased their condo without seeing a pool or clubhouse. They both envisioned great expectations of beauty and a fun place to live in which it is today.

If you also have lived in Falling Waters for many years then you would have known this attractive lady with beautiful hair, clothes and jewelry. Her accent that referred to everyone she met as Honey, so she didn't need to know your name. She was a frequent user of our beautiful pool which their condo overlooked.

Phyllis went into assistant living soon after her husband Mel passed away but her condo was only sold last year as her family were occupying it during visits.

The entombment will take place at the Palm Royal Cemetery on Vanderbilt Beach Road on Tuesday, July 23, 2019 at 10:00am. There will not be a funeral service per her wishes.

Condolence cards can be sent to:
