

ANNOUNCEMENT

A long time resident and neighbor of Magnolia Cove, Jim Winchester passed away peacefully at home on Wednesday evening, February 12, 2020.

For those of you that were fortunate to be involved either working with Jim or just as a friend and neighbor would find him to be an all around intelligent, caring, generous person and a gentlemen.

He enjoyed bowling all year long and was very good at it. In between bowling he managed to get to the fitness center for additional exercise. Over the years Jim was involved in many areas of Falling Waters, as he was the first President of the Master BOD's when we took over from the developer. He also was the President of Magnolia Cove for many years.

In addition, he started and organized our Falling Waters web-site 13 years ago which has grown over the years. Jim was also involved with organizing the Falling Waters magazine "The Splash".

Jim's close friends and neighbors will miss him immensely since he always made himself available to help with their computer problems which he always managed to successfully fix.

Arrangements have been made for a Memorial Mass after being cremated at St. Peter's the Apostle on Rattlesnake Hammock
