

ANNOUNCEMENT

A resident since 1994 in Rosewood Baldassare “Baldi” Restivo, passed away peacefully in a hospital in New York on Saturday, February 6, 2021 after experiencing various health issues. Baldi was 93 years old.

Baldi always enjoyed sitting on his front lanai early in the morning to watch the walkers who occasionally stopped to talk. Although he spoke English well he enjoyed speaking with some of his Italian friends in his language. He loved Florida and always was anxious to come down as soon as the weather started to get cold. Baldi and his wife Mimma also enjoyed sitting on the clubhouse deck and watch the people in the pool. He will be missed by his Italian friends and of course his neighbors who all had many conversations with him especially his next door neighbor Roe Pellegrino. It happened that they both moved to Falling Waters the same week and had much in common. They learned they were both from New York only minutes away and were Italian. It was like Roe having an extended family. However, the same week Mimma’s sister and brother also moved to Rosewood in the same building doors away. Roe was in the middle separating them. It turned out to be one happy family.

Baldi leaves his wife Mimma and his devoted son Carl.

Viewing & funeral will be at Fredricks Funeral Home, 192-15 Northern Blvd. Flushing, N.Y., Friday, February 12th at 9:30am. Burial at Mount St. Mary’s, Flushing, N.Y.

It lieu of flowers it has been requested by the family to please send donations to St. Jude’s Hospital for Children.
